

Wayne State University Library System Services for Faculty, Staff and Students with Disabilities

The Wayne State University Library System is committed to facilitating faculty, staff, and student access to our collections and services. This guide will help members of the Wayne State University community take advantage of available resources.

Retrieval/Delivery of Materials

Paging service for library materials is available upon request at any library circulation desk. Requests may also be made to have non-restricted materials from any campus library delivered for use and/or circulation to the campus library most convenient to the requester. Such requests may be made in person or by calling any library circulation desk. Requested materials will be held for pick up for 48 hours.
