This letter certifies that you have presented the necessary documentation to authenticate your disability. To equalize your chances for academic success, the following accommodations have been made:

[accessibility_request|accommodation]

TEMPLATE

TO PROFESSORS:

- Please note that if the student identified above requires testing accommodations, the student may need to take an exam or quiz at a time different than the class time due to conflict with another class time or SDS hours of operation.
- Disability Specialists are available to consult with program faculty to determine what, if any, reasonable accommodations can be implemented. Please reach out with questions or concerns.

Federal legislation mandates that the University provide reasonable accommodations that allow equal opportunity for all students. Establishing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities involves shared responsibility between the students, faculty, and staff.

Wayne State University is in compliance with:

- Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; PL-101-336
- Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act of 2008
- Section 504 Part E of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, PL-93-112
